IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF OREGON

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

JOHNNY ROTHY PALMER,

Defendant.

CR 03-463-01-HA

ORDER REVOKING
SUPERVISED RELEASE TERM,
IMPOSING SENTENCE, AND REIMPOSING SUPERVISED
RELEASE TERM

On October 5, 2009, this Court sentenced defendant to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a period of 12 months to be followed by a 24-month term of supervised release subject to standard and special conditions. The term of supervised release began on September 17, 2010.

On October 18, 2010, this Court issued a Warrant of Arrest and Order to Show Cause why defendant's term of supervised release should not be revoked based on the probation officer's allegations that defendant violated the conditions of release.

On January 10, 2011, defendant appeared with counsel at a hearing to determine whether defendant's supervised release should not be revoked. The defendant admitted he had violated the conditions of supervised release by engaging in new criminal activity (Possession of a Controlled Substance - Marijuana) and possessing a controlled substance, failing to report to the probation officer as directed, failing to submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month, failing to notify the probation officer within 72 hours of any change in residence, associating with persons convicted of a felony without being granted permission by the probation officer, failing to notify the probation officer within 72 hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, failing to participate in drug treatment, and failing to submit to urinalysis testing.

It is the finding of the Court that defendant violated the conditions of supervised release.

It now appearing to the Court defendant is no longer suitable for continued community supervision,

IT IS ORDERED defendant's term of supervised release is revoked and defendant is committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a period of 6 months.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that upon release from imprisonment, defendant is subject to reimposition of supervised release, pursuant to 18 USC § 3583(h), and is ordered to a term of supervised release for 6 months, subject to the standard conditions and the following special condition: 1) The defendant shall reside in and participate in the program of an inpatient drug treatment center, as directed by the probation officer, for a period not to exceed 6 months.

DATED this 10 day of January, 2011.
